BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that, if Mr. Narasimhiah is to be reverted to his previous appointment, a number of officials will have to be deprived of the small promotions they have deservedly earned & recommends that, under the circumstances, the probationary tenure of Service of Mr. Narasimhiah may be extended until such time as a suitable place can be found for him elsewhere & trusts the question of granting the increment to his pay may be deferred for the present.

/ The D. G. of Prisons was distinctly given to understand in this office letter no. X. 1925/Pris 63-15-4, dated 29th Nov. 16 that it is not possible to provide a place for Mr. Narasimhiah in any other department. The D. G., however, still seems to think that it may be found possible to do so sometime later. Unless this remote contingency happens, the D.G. suggests that the probationary tenure of Mr Narasimhiah may be prolonged. Apparently, the D.G. does not want Mr. Narasimhiah to revert to his original appointment as such a course would adversely affect the small promotions earned by the other officials referred to. Section.

2). It does not appear feasible to indefinitely extend the period of probation which was in the first instance fixed at one year.

3). Attention is respectfully invited to D.G.'s letter No. 192/127-07 dated 26th January 1915, wherein Mr. L. Narasimhiah has been reported to be the most Eligible for the post of Deputy Jailor of the Bangalore Central Jail, both by virtue of his experience, work in the executive & clerical branches & length of Service.

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter No. J.1925 Pris.63-15-4 dated the 29th November 1916, I have the honor to bring to your kind notice that Mr. L. Narasimiah referred to the in, was appointed as Deputy Jailor of the Bangalore Central Jail January 1915, that is nearly two years ago. Since then there ha been several changes on the establishments of the Bangalore Cent and Mysore Jails and of my office, owing to the transfer of Mr. Nagavkar to foreign service, to the dismissal of Mr. E.W.L.Tate, the reversion of Mr.M.Surappa and long leave granted to him and the deputation of some of the officials to other offices etc. facilitate the working of the Department, the appointments below the grade of the Deputy Jailor, had to be filled up permanently. Mr. Narasimiah is ordered to be reverted to his previous appoint a number of officials who have worked hard for so long a period done additional duties, will have to be deprived of the small pr motions they have deservedly earned, notwithstanding that two Officers have already been newly brought from the Police Departm

2. Considering all the above facts, the transfer of Mr.Naras to some other Department and sending a substitute in his place,w suggested by me to Government. If it is inconvenient to consider the proposal, the probationary tenure of service of the said off may be extended until such time as a suitable place could be fou for him in any of the Departments under Government control.

3. The question of granting the increment to his pay may th

fore

therefore be deferred for the present.
